

TWENTY-TWO MARINES KILLED IN FIGHTING

All of Dead Are Enlisted Men, but Eight Officers Are Among Wounded.

ONE COMPANY SUFFERS MOST

American "Soldiers of the Sea" Have Been Holding a Front-Line Trench for Some Time—List Includes All Casualties to Date.

(By Associated Press.)

WASHINGTON, April 25.—The total losses of the brigade of marines with the American expeditionary force in France so far reported was announced today by Major-General Barnett, commander of the corps, as 278, divided as follows:

Killed in action, twenty-two; died from wounds, ten; died from accident, two; wounded in action, 244.

All the dead are enlisted men, but eight officers, two captains and six lieutenants were among the wounded. Five of the enlisted men were slightly wounded, but General Barnett's statement did not show whether the officers and other men were severely or slightly hurt.

ONE COMPANY SUFFERS LOSS OF ONE HUNDRED AND SIXTY-TWO

Most of the casualties were in one company, which, General Barnett said, lost a total of twenty-one men killed and 140 wounded out of a personnel of 250. The dates on which the marines were killed and wounded were not made public, nor was it indicated what part of the line "the soldiers of the sea" are holding or in what actions they have participated. Such information is withheld for military reasons.

It is known, however, that the marines have been holding a front-line trench sector for several weeks, having been moved up to the battle line after doing police duty along the American lines of communication since they first went to Europe with the vanguard of General Pershing's forces last summer.

LIST IS FIRST ONE YET MADE PUBLIC

Today's list was the first marine corps casualty list made public, and included all names reported up to April 23. Since the marines are considered an integral part of the army in France, officials of the corps had expected their casualties to be included in those of the army announced by the War Department. Inquiry, however, developed that such was not the case, and the compiling of a complete list was ordered by General Barnett. It was regarded as probable that some of the names announced today, previously had been issued by the War Department in the regular army lists made public daily.

General Barnett's first announcement said casualties totaled 274, with thirty-four enlisted men killed and four officers and 236 enlisted men wounded. Later he made public the names of four additional officers and five enlisted men who had been wounded. When the list of names referred to in General Barnett's first announcement was issued, however, it was found that it contained only 271 names, with those of two men duplicated, leaving a total of 269. To this was added the five names of men wounded, which were announced later, making the total casualties 274.

Considering the length of time the marines have been on the fighting line, the casualties were regarded as comparatively small.

The list follows:

LETTER TO VON PAPEN REVEALS WAR PLANS

British Government Publishes Papers Taken From Late Military Attache.

LETTER WRITTEN BEFORE WAR

Berlin Man Wanted to Know About Blowing Up of Railway Trains in Mexico in Event of European Conflict.

(By Associated Press.)

WASHINGTON, April 25.—Repeated declarations of the German Emperor and Hindenburg and Ludendorff that the war was forced upon Germany, and assertions from the same source that Germany was taken by surprise by the Russian mobilization, attaches particular interest to certain papers taken from Captain von Papen, late German military attache at Washington.

Among the papers, which have been published by the British government in the White Book, appears a letter from H. von Wild, to Captain von Papen, seeking information regarding the best means of blowing up railroad trains "in the event of a European war." The significant point is that this letter was written March 12, 1914, about five months before the outbreak of war. This letter says:

"According to newspaper reports, several railway trains were blown up by revolutionaries during trouble in Mexico. In order to form an opinion whether in the event of a European war, explosions of this kind would have to be reckoned with, it is requested, that if possible, information should be obtained as to how these attacks have been carried out."

Captain von Papen, replying from Mexico, where it is now known that he was industriously planting the seeds of German propaganda and establishing connections for Germany to use in the event that she should war upon the United States, did not regard the operations of the Mexican revolutionaries as of any particular value.

Another letter to Von Papen, from the manager of the Potsdam branch of the Disconto-Gesellschaft, has this postscript:

"P. S. We have never before seen such preparations for war as are being made at present. German government stock fell to-day 1 per cent. Kind regards. R. MIMMEL."

This letter was regarded as of particular interest by the British compilers of the correspondence, in view of its date—July 25, 1914, while negotiations were still in progress to avoid war.

Evidently Dr. Dumba, Austro-Hungarian ambassador to the United States, recalled at the request of this government, did not appreciate until the last moment the danger in which he was placed by his own machinations, for optimism characterized his last letter to Von Papen, dated at Lenox, Mass., September 1, 1915.

THREE FIRES DESTROY OHIO RAILROAD SHOPS

Loss Includes at Least Ten Locomotives and New Train of Troop Coaches.

(By Associated Press.)

LIMA, OHIO, April 25.—Federal agents to-day are investigating three fires which broke out simultaneously in the Lake Erie and Western Railroad shops here last night, and practically destroyed the plant, valued at $500,000. One arrest has been made, and it is said others may be made during the day.

Property loss included at least ten locomotives, a new train of troop coaches, just completed, and a score of other coaches. Ten thousand dollars' worth of Liberty bond subscriptions were burned in the office of the shops. For some time a considerable part of Lima was threatened by the fire.

The man under arrest is Will Pantius, who says his home is Cleora, Ind. He was an employee of one of the shops. Officials decline to say why he is held.

ORDER COURT-MARTIAL FOR BRIGADIER-GENERAL

Charged Officer Participated in Games of Cards With Junior Officials in Which Money Passed.

(By Associated Press.)

WASHINGTON, April 25.—A special court-martial has been ordered for Brigadier-General Arthur B. Donnelly, formerly of the Missouri National Guard, now under arrest at Camp Mills, N. Y.

An official report made by an inspecting officer, charges that General Donnelly participated in games of cards with junior officers in which money was passed, that the games were held in the general's tent, and that liquor was served to the players.

Strong influence has been brought to bear on the War Department to have the charges dropped, but Secretary Baker refused to interfere. He is understood to have told members of Congress who approached him that a general officer would be handed the same measure of justice as the lowest recruit, but that the sentence in the former case should, in fairness be more severe because of the opportunity the officer had to familiarize himself with army regulations.

DEPARTMENT OF JUSTICE POINTS TO PROSECUTIONS

Denies Charge That It Has Not Been Active in Combating Enemy Propaganda.

3,465 DRAFT CONVICTIONS

At Least 3,900 Persons Have Been Convicted "Under Wholly Inadequate Federal Laws," Says Statement—Espionage Act Stretched.

(By Associated Press.)

WASHINGTON, April 25.—Refuting recent charges that the Department of Justice had not been active in combating enemy propaganda within the United States, the department to-day reported that at least 3,900 convictions had been obtained during the last year, "under wholly inadequate Federal laws, against sabotage, disloyal utterances and other forms of interference with the war." These figures were gathered from partial reports of United States Attorneys, and actually represent only a small part of the department's work of policing the country, it was said.

On charges of interfering with the operation of the draft, 3,465 persons have been convicted, or have pleaded guilty, and 181 have been acquitted. Under the espionage act, which has been stretched to cover many varying cases of disloyalty, there have been 236 convictions and seventeen acquittals. Under general war statutes, 225 have been convicted and eighty-nine acquitted. Twenty persons have been found guilty of making threats against the President and ten acquitted on this charge.
